The House of Daniel Thwaites
Delivering Superb Hospitality – protecting your wellbeing, helping you to feel at ease

Our family business has been passionate about delivering superb hospitality for over 200 years. From humble beginnings at our Lancashire brewery, we have continued in the footsteps of our founder Daniel Thwaites, adapting our hospitality to give you an experience that is second to none.

The safety and wellbeing of our guests and team members is always at the forefront of our minds and in today’s world this has never been more important than now. As we have learnt more about our current world we have been working hard to adopt new measures to help you feel confident about your own wellbeing and that of our teams.

We have built into our normal working practices a continuous cleaning and sanitising regime, measures to protect your personal space wherever possible and comprehensive and detailed training for every team member. This guide details all the measures we currently have in place to ensure everyone’s safety and wellbeing is carefully considered.

All this does mean that some things might feel a little bit different for a while, but rest assured we are actively monitoring external guidance as well as all feedback continuously to ensure that we are flexible, responsive and adapt ourselves quickly to ensure that we are in line with best practice.

At present this new regime is our number one priority, however we are also very mindful that it goes hand in hand with giving you the best and richest experience that we pride ourselves on. As a result you can be confident that from the moment you visit any of our properties that you will be well looked after with a warm welcome from a friendly face.

We have missed seeing our guests enormously – it has felt very strange having our lovely properties empty but the Thwaites family are now back up and running and we can’t wait to welcome you soon.

After all, we’ve been delivering superb hospitality since 1807 – we have survived wars and pandemics before and we will work tirelessly to make sure that we come through today’s challenging environment, confident that we will continue to do what we do best – helping you to feel at ease and enjoy your visit.

With my very best wishes,

Rick Bailey
Executive Chairman, Daniel Thwaites

Our Team Members

Our team members make us who we are and their safety and wellbeing is of utmost importance to us. To ensure this we have adopted the following safety measures. Again, we will adapt these in line with guidance but also based on feedback we get from our teams as it is extremely important that these measures work for them and they feel 100% confident and comfortable coming to work...

Team Uniform
Uniform for some specific roles is only put on when our team member arrives at the property and is removed before they leave.

All team members are temperature checked and asked a series of health questions at the start of every shift: This takes place in a designated Team wellness space in the property where hand sanitiser and clean uniform is also available.

All team members have completed COVID 19 specific training before working in our properties.

Through daily huddles, an online internal communications system, posters in property and direct contact all team members are kept up-to-date on all relevant information and can also feedback directly to their manager.

Social Distancing
All team members are adhering to the current guidance on social distancing. Tables and chairs in team areas have been moved apart as have desks in support office areas.

Protective Screens
We have implemented protective screens in relevant areas to protect both our team members and guests.
